Outline of the application.

Carefully read all sections on the application and fill in blanks as necessary.

Required information is designated throughout the form with either a * or *required. If these items are left blank, a warning message will appear. To continue on in the application, all required items must be completed.
You must select the degree(s) in which you are applying for this term. Your application will be incomplete without this information, and it will not be processed.

If you are applying for the Nebraska Initial Teaching Certificate, select Yes.

If you are adding majors/minors or removing majors/minors from your current program, note those changes here. You must visit with your undergraduate advisor and complete a CDMA to make it official.

Graduate students must visit with Graduate Studies to officially change your major or minor or add a specialization.
The Options and Concentrations section of the application is for those students in the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources and the College of Journalism and Mass Communications Undergraduates only.

If you are taking course work at another institution this term to complete your UNL degree requirements, enter the transfer course information on this page.
Graduate and Professional Students please make sure you are providing us with Advisor Information and your Previous Degrees.
If you need to make any edits to the application, use the Back button to navigate back through the application again. Once you click Submit, you cannot edit your application.

Are you all done? Click Submit, to complete your application for graduation!

After clicking Submit you will see a list of charges.
